

GRAND-DAD'S CRAVAT'S RIGHT SMART WHEN
WORN BY LOVELY MANNIKIN

Sophie Schauls.

Back to the days of our grandmothers and great-grandmothers designers of modes frequently go for fashion ideas, but Mme. Alla Ripley is probably the first of the modistes to borrow a fashion idea from grandfather, and a cravat as dignified and prim as the "neckpiece" worn by